

FBLA

Minutes of February 2, 2012

Call to Order:

The regular meeting of the FBLA was called to order on Thursday February 2, 2012 at 2:50 pm. President Briana Woodard called this Thursday meeting to order with Vice President Anuhea Primacio recording minutes.

Attendance:

*Briana Woodard
Nick Celswell
Anuhea Primacio
Dominique Jackson*

Minutes:

The minutes of January 12, 2012 were read.

Treasurer's Report:

As of February 2, 2012 the Eisenhower Senior High School FBLA Club has a current balance of $422.15. The FBLA Club needs the dues of some members to make up the price so that, we can have $422.15 exactly. $33.00 needed to have total balance on hand correct.

Unfinished Business:

- NEED DUES! President Briana, Treasurer Nick and Reporter Dominique still need to pay dues ($11.00).*
- Also need to know for sure, who is attending State Leadership Conference so Treasurer Nick and Spenser Mr. Hutchins, can up with a total amount on how much money is needed for the FBLA members to attend State Leadership Conference.*

New Business:

- Battle of the Chapters: Briana, Anuhea, and Nick will enter as Eisenhower's FBLA attendees.
- Bottom amount needed for State Leadership Conference. Still need a direct answer on who will attend the State Leadership Conference, so Treasurer Nick can have an average number on how much money is needed for the FBLA Club to attend the State Leadership Conference.

Announcements:

Spencer Mr. Hutchins stated that "When things are due, it's due at that certain time." If things are going to continue on where members are turning things in late, the FBLA Club may not be able to attend activities due to a record of not turning things on time.

Adjournment:

There being no further business, President Briana Woodard adjourned this meeting at 3:10 pm.

Vice President Anuhea Primacio

Dominique Jackson

Nick Cowell

Brianna Woodard

Anuheia Primacio

Seige Herrera (first meeting attended)

Rebecca Hong (new recruit)

Minutes

The minutes of the November 10, 2011 meeting were read.

Treasurer's Report

Treasurer Nick Cowell reported a chapter balance as of November 16, 2011 of $0.

Unfinished Business

- There was an open vote for Seige Herrera to become the new Parliamentarian.
6 for yes. 0 for no. Therefore, Seige Herrera is the Eisenhower Senior High School FBLA's Parliamentarian.
- Fundraising Ideas:
 1. Country Meats
 2. School Spirit Coffee

The FBLA Club took an open vote on which of the fundraisers to do.

of yes for Country Meats= 6 of yes for School Spirit Coffee= 1

- Therefore, according to the open vote; the FBLA club will use the Country Meats as their fundraiser.

- The cost for one case of Country Meats will be $85.00, with 144 smoked snacks. The club will receive 48% of total amount.
- If the club sells all 144 smoked snacks it will total up to $144. The club will receive $69.12. If a member were to sell 2 cases; there will be a total of $288, and the club will receive $138.24.
- We want to at least every member to sell 2 cases (if possible) not mandatory.

New Business

- 2012 State Community Service Project: Aluminum Tabs
 - All FBLA chapters collect aluminum tabs on canned foods, dog food, cat food and other canned products. This community service project is to help raise money for the Ronald McDonald House to help sick children.
 - An open vote was taken, and the vote came unanimous (7 for yes)
- Thought for a new fundraiser?? December Candy Cane Drive.
 - Will take place the whole month of December and will be held by the FBLA Club. Each member should buy a box of candy canes (as many as you can afford). The FBLA will let students/ teachers buy candy canes for someone, and the FBLA Club will send them out to that specific person, to act as a Christmas present.
 - THE FBLA CLUB WILL MEET ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2011 TO START MAKING POSTERS.
- Starting January, the FBLA will hold meetings every even Thursday. The days were changed due to members not being able to come on every odd Thursday.
- Before February 9th, 2012 ALL FBLA members will have to renew their dues of $10.

Announcements

Mr. Hutchins had talked about job shadowing.

“In order for us to start the job shadowing, we must find a specific organization, hospital or college.”

Reminder for all members to begin collecting aluminum tabs for the 2012 State Community Service Project.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:16 p.m.

Minutes

The minutes of the Thursday, November 3, 2011 meeting were read. Anuheia Primacio moved to approve the minutes were read.

Treasurer Report

None.

Unfinished Business

- Still finding what type of fundraiser the FBLA Club can do to raise money for activities. Preferably no food; could cause contradictions between school vending machines.
- The FBLA Club of Eisenhower Senior High School can not attend the National Fall Leadership Conference.
- State Leadership Conference: March 29- 31 (Thursday- Saturday)
$37.00 for registration
$90.00 a night/ 4 people
$22.50 for 1 person and 1 night
$45.00 for 1 person and 2 nights
Total amount: approximately from $100- $150 (including 3 meals a day)
Dress Code: Nice clothing, business attire.

New Business

When you are not going to attend a FBLA meeting, give a 24- hour notice to Mr. Hutchins or any other member to tell the President that you will not be attending. One way is to give everyone their e-mails.

Due to the resign of the FBLA's past President, Anthony; the FBLA Club had to move up the officers.

Brianna Woodard: FBLA president.

Anuhea Primacio: vice president.

Claire: secretary.

Nick Cowell: Treasurer.

Dominique: Reporter.

- Recruitment requirements:

Must have:

1. Have a minimum of a 2.0 GPA
2. No SAC's or suspensions
3. One ISD, second ISD will cause the individual to disqualify from membership.
4. Role model and leadership potential.
5. 9th- 12th grade

New members are REQUIRED to pay a $10 due.

- Fundraisers

1. School Spirit Coffee: provides a unique fundraiser that is personalized to each chapter or school. From the size and color of the coffee packaging, to the design of the label, the finished product is created to boost school spirit and ultimately boost your profit from their sales.
2. Country Meats: provides FBLA members a simple, healthy fund- raiser that features fresh smoked snack sticks that everyone loves. They have zero Trans fats, low carbs, high protein, and come in 12 yummy flavors. But that's not the best part, CHAPTERS RECEIVE 48% PROFIT AND 30 DAYS TO PAY THE BILL!!!

- Business attire will be used at National FBLA Meetings because those meetings and conferences require business attire.

-Shirts (both women and men) $25

-Scarf (women) $30

-Ties (men) $25

-Khakis members can buy their own pair due to lack of money and the price.

- Need money by February. $60 for clothing. $37 for State Leadership Conference registration. $50 for personal use and 3 meals a day @ State Leadership Conference.

Announcements

Talk to parents about FBLA State Leadership Conference about how to find money to attend.

Members' goal for next week is to meet next Thursday.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:13 p.m.

- Fundraisers:
 - a) Fundraisers will provide money needed for conferences, and any other type of outside activities between the FBLA Club.

- b) Preferably no food. It would be contradicting between school vending machines.

Any suggestions for future fundraisers come see Treasurer Nick Cowell.

- Local activities:
 1. Job shadowing: FBLA members basically shadow a worker in their career interest.
 2. Guests come to school: Guests from certain career areas members are interested in come to school and give a speech on their work force.
 3. Having a career fair: job shadowing day; different representatives from different career paths come to a fair that the FBLA Club will hold for student to find their career interest and hopefully join the FBLA Club. Our goal is to get more members in the FBLA and help students get a job shadowing in their career path interest.
- FBLA website:
 - Mr. Hutchins is currently working on the website.
 - Any questions on the website, ask Mr. Hutchins.
